For the relief of David Capps, formerly a corporal in the United States Marine Corps.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That David Capps, of Newport News, Virginia, formerly a corporal in the United States Marine Corps, is relieved of liability to the United States in the amount of $133.75, representing the overpayments of military pay for the period beginning with July 1968, and ending November 1968, and including the amount received on payroll numbered 524, as a result of an administrative error and through no fault of his own. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any certifying or disbursing officer of the United States, credit shall be given for amounts for which liability is relieved by this section.

David Capps.

SEC. 2. (a) The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the said David Capps, an amount equal to the aggregate of the amounts paid by him, or withheld from sums otherwise due him, with respect to the indebtedness to the United States specified in the first section of this Act.

(b) No part of the amount appropriated in subsection (a) of this section shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this subsection shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

For the relief of Major Henry C. Mitchell, retired.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Major Henry C. Mitchell, United States Army, retired, of Tallahassee, Florida, the sum of $514.15 in full settlement of all his claims against the United States arising out of his family's move (in July 1964 prior to the delayed issuance of moving orders) from Columbia, South Carolina, to Nashville, Tennessee, while he was on active duty with the United States Army. Such claims consist of fees paid to movers, a travel allowance for his wife and children, and a dislocation allowance.

Maj. Henry C.
Mitchell, USA.

SEC. 2. No part of the amount appropriated in the first section of this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

For the relief of William E. Baker.

William E.
Baker.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That William E. Baker of Coleman, Michigan, is relieved of liability to the United States in the amount of $630.92, representing the amount claimed to be due to the United States as a result of certain overpayments paid to him while he was a member of the United States Marine Corps. Such overpayments were the result of administrative errors which occurred without fault on the part of the said William E. Baker. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any certifying or disbursing officer of the United States, credit shall be given for the amount for which liability is relieved by this section.

SEC. 2. (a) The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the said William E. Baker an amount equal to the aggregate of the amounts paid by him, or withheld from sums otherwise due him, with respect to the indebtedness to the United States referred to in the first section of this Act.

(b) No part of the amount appropriated in subsection (a) of this section shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim. Any person violating the provisions of this subsection shall be fined not more than $1,000.
